ERF SEMINAR

MANAGING FIRMS IN AN EMERGING ECONOMY: EVIDENCE FROM THE TIME USE OF INDIAN CEOS

BY ORIANA BANDIERA, LONDON SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS

Oriana Bandiera is Professor of Economics and Director of Suntory and Toyota International Centres for Economics and Related Disciplines (STICERD) at the London School of Economics and Political Science. Professor Bandiera is fellow of the Center for Economic Policy Research (CEPR), Bureau for the Analysis of Economic Development (BREAD), and IZA, co-director of the research programme in State Capabilities within the International Growth Centre at the LSE. She is on the board of editors of the Journal of Economic Literature, Economic Journal and Journal of Development Economics. Her research focuses on the study of contracts and incentives in a broad range of organizations and countries. Her work has been published in leading academic journals such as the American Economic Review, Econometrica and the Quarterly Journal of Economics. She is the 2011 recipient of Carlo Alberto medal, awarded biennially to an Italian economist under the age of 40 for “outstanding research contributions to the field of economics.”

May 30th, 2013 Thursday 15:00 – 16:30
Student Senate, Koç University Student Center 1st Floor